

Hawk's Landing Resident Information Form & Community Telephone Directory

Resident Information Form:

Congratulations on your recent purchase in the stunning community of Hawk's Landing! We are delighted to have you among the growing number of future residents. From time-to-time members of the Hawk's Landing Services Co-op Ltd. (HLSCL) team will be in touch, mailing you informational updates, invitations and other community-related information. In order to serve you as efficiently as possible, we would appreciate it if you could take a moment to fill-out the attached Purchaser Information Form and return it to us.

All information provided is considered strictly confidential and will only be used by HLSCL for community related activities. Information such as children's names and ages is used for future social club activity planning.

Hawk's Landing Telephone Directory:

A community telephone directory will begin circulation among residents in Hawk's Landing. This directory is being created and will be updated quarterly by HLSCL. The following process has been established for the development and distribution of the telephone directory:

- The directory is for the use of Hawk's Landing residents only. Information found within the directory should not be used for non-community related activities or released to non-residents.
- The directory will contain the following information only. Resident Names, Mailing Address, Home Telephone Number (Children's names & ages have purposely been omitted from the directory as has your house number in Hawk's Landing).
- Participation in the directory is optional, purchaser consent must be provided prior to being included in the directory. (A checked box on the attached Resident Information form is considered proper consent).
- Your current mailing address (But not home address) will be published in the directory.
- Copies of the directory will only be circulated to participating residents.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention in completing this form and returning it to our office.
